President's Letter

Greetings and welcome to ASCP's 2020 Virtual Annual Meeting!

We are coming together at a truly historic time in our nation and in our world. As members of the pathology and medical laboratory professions, you have been on the front lines throughout this pandemic, working tirelessly to save the lives of hundreds of thousands of COVID-19 patients. We are so proud of your heroic efforts.

This Annual Meeting is unlike any other that ASCP has held. We are not housed together in a large convention center. We are all joining the meeting from our offices or homes. I think you'll be energized by some of the new and innovative ways in which we are offering our education, networking opportunities and roundtable discussions.

ASCP is committed to bringing you the same high quality, cutting edge science that you expect.

I would especially like to thank the Co-chairs of the ASCP Annual Meeting Education Committee, Dr. Amy Chadburn, Dr. Mamatha Chivukula, and Mr. Rex Famitangco, for all of their extraordinary work in putting this program together.

During this pandemic, I encourage you to remember that we are all in this together. We are here for you, as you lead the laboratory in solving diagnostic problems that are critical to patient care. You are the heroes who are making a profound difference in patients' lives.

With warm regards,

Gene P. Siegal, MD, PhD, FASCP
President, ASCP

VIRTUAL

SEPTEMBER 9-12, 2020

Getting Started

Registered attendees can access ASCP 2020 Virtual at www.ascp.org/Virtual. ASCP 2020 Virtual is best experienced on a laptop or desktop computer with a high resolution monitor. All times in this guide are listed in CDT – However, please note that session times listed in the meeting will be adjusted to your local time zone based on your computer/device settings. Recommended browsers include Chrome, Edge and Firefox.

Navigating the Meeting

After logging in you will arrive in the Lobby. From here you can navigate to different rooms by using the menu at the bottom of your screen, and by clicking on signs and graphics throughout the virtual space.

Take some time to navigate around the meeting space. You may be surprised at what you find! For more detailed navigation instructions, please turn to the end of this Guide.

Edit Your Profile

Other attendees will be able to see your name and send you messages while you are logged in to the meeting. To add a profile picture and adjust your information, click on 'Edit Registration Info' under the Settings drop-down (gear icon) in the top right of your screen.

Find Sessions & Build Your Agenda

All sessions can be found within the 'Education Sessions' room. From this room, click on All Sessions, a day of the week, or the Accredited Satellite Symposia and Roundtable Discussions links to view a listing of upcoming, running, and completed sessions.

You can also quickly find specific sessions by searching title names, speakers, or keywords in the search bar at the top of any page:

To bookmark a session for later, click on the briefcase icon next to that session.

You can then find all of your saved sessions under My Agenda & Resources:

Claiming CE Credits

You can find the 'Claim Credits' link from the main Lobby as well as the Help Desk. For more detailed information, see the 'Claim Credit' section further into this Guide.

Help Desk

If at any time you need technical support, or additional guidance beyond that contained in this guide, please go to the Help Desk located in the lobby, and our staff will be happy to assist you.

Navigating the Virtual Annual Meeting

The lobby is your launch point to find everything the meeting has to offer.

From the Lobby you can navigate to different rooms by using the menu at the bottom of your screen, and by clicking on signs and graphics throughout the virtual space.

And before we get started, we want you to know that the Help Desk in the Lobby is staffed and ready to assist, from answering questions on technical issues to helping you find a session or roundtable. Anything you need, we will be there.

Tip: You will see signs and text throughout the meeting space, much of it is clickable. Take some time to look around, there is a lot to discover!

We hope you enjoy this one of a kind event and take the time to discover its many offerings. Thank you for attending!

Throughout the meeting you will be seeing notifications pop up on your screen like this one.

These will contain information on upcoming sessions and other things we think you need to know about. You will also from time to time see links in these messages to take you to the places mentioned in the notification. After you've read a message, simply click on it to make it disappear.

The Education Sessions room is where you'll find and launch all of the sessions, keynotes, roundtables, and accredited satellite symposia.

Clicking on Sessions will take you to this screen. Here, session times will adjust to your local time zone.

You can open a session beginning at its start time by clicking the Launch button to the left of the description.

Most sessions will be available on demand the day after the live session is completed. Simply find and launch them from this same screen as you would as if they were live. Most sessions will be available on demand within 1-2 hours after the live session is completed.

Tip: To bookmark a session, click the briefcase icon at the far right of the session description and it will be saved to your agenda.

The Exhibit Hall houses dozens of individual booths to explore, along with the ASCP Community and Career Services booths.

The ASCP Community Booth, as well as other ASCP resource booths, is located in the Exhibit Hall, you can access it there or directly from the lobby through the link in the middle of the lobby page. You'll find information and links on Membership, ASCP Press Books, ASCP online education products and other ASCP items of interest. And we're always ready and willing for some good conversation.

The Poster Hall lets you view digital posters and chat directly with poster presenters. You can even vote for your favorite poster - One poster will receive the new Attendee Favorite Award based on the vote count!

Take a break in the Social Lounge, where you can chat with other members, discover fun yoga, meditation, and cooking sessions, and join in on the Friday mixology happy hour event! Take a seat in one of the many comfy chairs!

Connecting with other attendees is easy – Either click the Chat icon at the bottom of the screen to start a private one-on-one or click on Join The Group Chat in the left-center of the screen to talk with other attendees.

“The lab’s potential impact doesn’t end when we release a result rather that is where it begins.”

The world of healthcare is changing – the clinical laboratory is changing with it. While the traditional, transactional lab model continues to serve as a foundation, the emerging Clinical Lab 2.0 business model leverages longitudinal laboratory data to produce actionable, clinical insight, driving better outcomes for patients, providers, and financial stakeholders alike. Clinical Lab 2.0 re-engineers the role of the lab in the care continuum aligning with the future of value-based healthcare.

As the transition continues from volume to value-based healthcare, what is the significance of the lab in value-based healthcare and population health? How is Clinical Lab 2.0 amplified in the current environment? Panelists during this lively discussion will address these questions and more.

The Clinical Lab 2.0 Movement - Roadmap

Thursday, September 10 | 11:15 AM – 12:15 PM CDT

Melissa Upton,
MD, FASCP

Michele Raible Lecture The Heart and Soul of Mentoring

Wednesday, September 9 | 2:45 PM – 3:45 PM CDT

In her experience of over 30 years as a mentor, Dr. Melissa Upton recognizes that most mentors and mentees need specific guidance on how to build a successful mentoring relationship, addressing fundamental guiding principles to enhance this process. She will discuss “frequently asked questions” that mentees have brought to her, including how to enhance self-awareness; how to recognize one’s own strengths and weaknesses to enhance learning and success and how to make choices regarding career direction.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Define the benefits and challenges associated with a mentorship relationship, and list the differences between a mentor and a sponsor.
- Write clear and specific goals and objectives.

Karen Brown,
MS, MASCP,
MLS(ASCP)^{CM}

Barbara Castleberry Lecture Stronger Together: A History of Non-Physician Members in ASCP

Thursday, September 10 | 12:30 PM - 1:30 PM CDT

ASCP was founded in 1922 and originally organized for educational, scientific, and charitable purposes as well as to promote clinical pathology as a distinct specialty among physicians.

Today, the Society has a unique position with membership embracing physicians and non-physicians who work together to advance the practice of pathology and laboratory medicine.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Discuss the origins of non-physician involvement in ASCP beginning with the Associate/Affiliate member category.
- Understand the transitions which have resulted in an inclusive organization with more recognition of medical laboratory professionals in Society governance.

Henry Appelman,
MD, MASCP

Arthur Purdy Stout Lecture Frustrating and Annoying Gut Biopsies

Thursday, September 10 | 2:15 PM – 3:15 PM CDT

The lecture will be an expose on a series of gastrointestinal tract biopsies that are a daily challenge to pathologists because:

1. They are often not well characterized in the literature
2. They have changes that should be ignored
3. They may be known by different names under different circumstances.

The lecture begins with a group of recommendations for handling all biopsies based on the experiences of the lecturer.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Recognize biopsy changes that differ from the classical changes described in textbooks
- Recognize changes in biopsies that are meaningless and that should be ignored
- Describe the importance of focal inflammations in biopsies from different parts of the gut

Walter Oliveira,
MASCP,
MLS(ASCP)^{CM/SL}

Cindy S. Johns Lecture Four Letter Words for the Laboratory: What I Learned from Cindy Johns

Friday, September 11 | 11:15 AM – 12:15 PM CDT

This session is meant to encourage attendees to think differently and apply principles learned here to their own laboratory.

Using the qualities and characteristics of excellence, engagement and enthusiasm for the patient, professional and profession that Cindy Johns displayed over her long career, you will get a glimpse of what a servant leader looks like.

You'll see how a love of crossword puzzles and language can be used to engage people and create a PLAN (Present, Listen, Attitude & Action, Never Quit) for success.

The Laboratory Professionals Track

Discover four days of sessions developed and presented by leading Laboratory Professionals. A range of high-interest topic areas are covered, including hematology/coagulation, blood banking/transfusion medicine, microbiology, chemistry, and more.

This track includes sessions like:

DAY 1 Wednesday, September 9th
LPR102-20	"Skype® It to Me": Implementing a Skype-based Remote Microscopy Service in the Microbiology and Hematology Laboratories	Raquel Martinez, PhD; Michelle Grant, MD, FASCP

RES201-20	Resident Board Review Course: Hematopathology and Forensic Pathology	Carole Vogler, MD, FASCP; Katherine Robbins, MD; Kanayo Tatsumi, MD, FASCP

Roundtable Discussions

Now with more Roundtable Discussion Sessions than ever, every attendee will be able to participate in daily breakouts for live group discussion on a wide range of topics of interest, each facilitated by one or more expert faculty often more than once per day.

Note that some Roundtables may be subject to a capacity limit, at which point access to that session will close. You can join a session beginning at the listed start time.

Roundtable Discussions will be held during the following times:

Wednesday, Sep 9 12:00 PM – 12:45 PM CDT

5:15 PM – 5:45 PM CDT

Thursday, Sep 10 12:30 PM – 1:30 PM CDT

4:45 PM – 5:30 PM CDT

Friday, Sep 11 11:15 AM – 12:15 PM CDT

3:30 PM – 4:15 PM CDT

View the full listing of all Roundtables by navigating to the Education Sessions room, then by clicking on 'Roundtable Discussions'.

Fellowship Fair

Friday, September 11
1:00 PM – 3:00 PM CDT

Residents—The 2020 Fellowship Fair will connect you with 30+ programs across the country with a total of over 200 open pathology fellowship positions. Cedars Sinai Medical Center, Cleveland Clinic, Northwestern University, Stanford University, and the University of Southern California are just a few of the prestigious institutions that will be in attendance.

You'll be able to download materials and videoconference live with representatives from each program. Be sure to attend during the Fair hours in order to meet with program representatives.

You can find the Fellowship Fair directly via the lobby.

Career Services Booth

Located in the Exhibit Hall, ASCP's Career Services Booth is where you will find the tools to become successful in developing your professional profile and skills within your field. Sign up for one-on-one mentorship sessions, talk to a career expert, hop in to quick and informative workshops, and more!

Find the Career Services Booth in the Exhibit Hall or directly from the lobby via the 'Career Services' link.

Hall of Fame

Through the Hall of Fame link in the lobby, you can find a listing of the many ASCP awards and their recipients for 2020 along with a faculty listing. The awards include:

- President's Award
- ASCP Masterships and other Annual Awards
- Choosing Wisely Champions
- Patient Champions' Award
- Ambassador Awards
- Medical Student Gold Award

2020 Virtual Patient Symposium

Patient Champions Booth in Exhibit Hall

Empowered patients are essential to optimizing health care. Empowered patients are informed patients who are equipped to make better decisions in managing their diagnosis and treatment.

Make sure to attend these sessions and increase your understanding of how patients deal and cope with serious diagnoses and their relationship with the laboratory.

Wednesday, September 9 | 12:45 – 1:15 PM CDT

Session 1: The Lab Saved My Life with Champion and End Stage Renal Disease Survivor Anthony Reed General Opening Session

Thursday, September 10 | 1:30 – 2:00 PM CDT

Session 2: The Impact of Seeing My Pathology Slide with Champion and Breast Cancer Survivor Michele Mitchell and Patient Champions Award

Friday, September 11 | 12:15 – 12:45 PM CDT

Session 3: COVID and Patient Education with Lynnette Chakkaphak

Friday, September 11 | 1:00 – 2:00 PM CDT at the Auditorium

Session 4: Building a Dialogue between Patients and the Laboratory with Jeff Myers, MD, Lotte Mulder, PhD, and Constantine Kanakis, MD, MSc, MLS (ASCP)^{CM}

Social Events

You can find more information about these events and more in the Social Lounge accessible off the Lobby.

Take a Break! Yoga & Meditation

Take some time to unwind or reset your mind in between sessions with yoga and meditation sessions, built into breaks throughout the meeting.

Claim Credit

Evaluations and CME, CMLE, SAMs CME credit claiming instructions.

COMPLETE YOUR EVALUATIONS AND CLAIM CREDITS

1. Session evaluations must be completed in order to claim credits. Attendees may claim up to 124 CE credits. Credits must be claimed within six months after the meeting (March 31, 2021). To claim your credits, go to the ASCP 2020 Virtual Lobby, Education Sessions, ASCP Community Booth or Help Desk and click on “Claim Credits” or go directly to www.ascp.org and login to your account.
2. After logging in, you will be taken directly to the My Education area in your dashboard. From there select the sessions on which you want to claim credit and add them to your itinerary. After completely that, go to My Itinerary tab and hit launch to claim credit.
3. All of the Annual Meeting sessions will appear, including Roundtables. After you attend the session, selecting the “Launch” buttons in the “Action” column next to the related session will allow you to complete your evaluation and claim credit. No registration is required for Roundtables, but attendance is limited.
4. If a session is eligible for SAMs CME credit, you will be given an option of SAMs CME or CME when you “Launch” the session in step 3 above. If you select SAMs CME you will be directed to a Post Test prior to the evaluation. Upon successful completion of the Post Test, you will receive SAMs CME credit.

PLEASE NOTE

- Credits cannot be claimed until the session has finished.
- Once submitted, the number of credits cannot be changed or removed.

Accreditation Statement

The American Society for Clinical Pathology (ASCP) is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Credit Designation Statement

The ASCP designates this other activity (internet live course and internet enduring material activity) for a maximum of 124 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™.

Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Customer Service
